General manager Mike Maccagnan, who spoke with PFT on Wednesday, said they will extend Roethlisberger's deal, but not until the player's agent tells them the quarterback wants a new deal. And Maccagnan said he believes that agent, Todd France, is going to tell them that Roethlisberger wants to leave after the 2016 season. "As far as I know, the answer to that question is, yes," Maccagnan said. If Roethlisberger doesn't want to return to the team, then the Jets will move on from the QB. And if they don't, they will be free to pass on one of the top four quarterbacks in the draft, in favor of a younger player who can contribute immediately..com/mailman/listinfo/memberlist.cgi.
